Each party to the Arbitration will be responsible for its own costs and will share equally, the cost associated with the Arbitrator.

20.13 OPTIONAL GRIEVANCE INVESTIGATION PROCEDURE

The Parties have agreed to initiate an Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure for the specified term of the Agreement, in accordance with the following:

- (a) Purpose and Scope
 - (i) Recognizing that there are times and circumstances in which it may be necessary to seek third-party assistance in the resolution of grievances, and in an attempt to find a way in which to bring about such resolutions without incurring the costs and delays associated with formal arbitration proceedings, the Parties have agreed to provide for an Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure.
 - (ii) The process is intended to complement the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures otherwise provided for in this Agreement. It is not intended to replace those other procedures.
- (b) Optional Grievance Investigation Procedure
 - (i) As provided for in Section 103 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia, where a difference arises between the Parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee during the term of the Collective Agreement, the Parties will appoint one of the persons named herein as "Investigators", or a substitute agreed to by the Parties, to:
 - 1) investigate the difference;
 - 2) define the issue in the difference, and
 - 3) make written recommendations to resolve the difference within five (5) days of the date of receipt of the request and, for those five (5) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.
- (c) Cost Sharing

As provided for in Section 103 of the Labour Relations Code of British Columbia, each party shall pay one-third (1/3) of the cost incurred in relation to the reasonable remuneration, travelling and out of pocket expenses of the Investigator or the Investigator's substitute. The remaining one-third (1/3) will be paid by the Provincial Government.
- (d) Investigators - Alternates Agreed to, and Selection
 - (i) The Parties have agreed that for the term of this Agreement, the persons named in a Letter of Understanding will be recognized as their "Investigators" for the purposes of this investigation procedure, subject to receiving their respective consents to their appointment.
 - (ii) Selection of a particular named individual to serve in each instance shall be by agreement of the Parties. Should the Parties fail to agree on the selection, then the person next on the list shall be chosen.
- (e) Option Choice and Timing

- (i) Either party may choose to implement the investigation procedure provided that all Steps of the Grievance Procedure, prior to reference to arbitration, have been exhausted without a resolution of the difference.
- (ii) The party wishing to use the investigation procedure shall notify the other party of the decision, within five (5) working days of the receipt of the reply at the last Step of the Grievance Procedure. Such notification must be in writing.
- (iii) The party receiving notification may refuse to accept the Investigator Procedure, in which case, the arbitration provisions of this Agreement are then available and the time limit contained in that Article begins to run from the date of the refusal decision being delivered in writing. No reasons for the refusal need be given, and such refusal must be submitted within five (5) working days.

20.14 BINDING RECOMMENDATIONS

While the grievance investigation process is intended to yield only non-binding recommendations, the Parties may agree that the recommendations will represent a binding award, in the manner of an arbitration award. Such agreement must be made in advance of the appointment of the Investigator or Officer.

20.15 FAST TRACK MED/ARB PROCESS

- (a) Recognizing that there are times when an expedited arbitration may be desirable, the Parties agree that the following process may be used as a substitute for the formal Grievance Procedure outlined in Article 20 of the Collective Agreement.
 - 1) The process can only be used by mutual agreement between the Parties who are signatory to this Collective Agreement. (Unifor and AAVA Whistler Hotel)
 - 2) The outcome will be binding on both Parties.
 - 3) The cost will be borne in accordance with Section 103 of the Labour Relations Code, i.e., Employer - one-third (1/3), Union - one-third (1/3), Government - one-third (1/3).
 - 4) The procedure cannot be used should an application for a Settlement Officer, under Section 87 of the Labour Relations Code, have been made by either party.
 - 5) No legal counsel will be used by either party. The Union will use elected officers or Union Representatives. H.I.R. will use employees of their Industrial Relations Office.
 - 6) The number of cases to be heard at any given time will not exceed three (3).
 - 7) The Parties or their representatives will try to get an agreed statement of facts for presentation to the arbitrator.

Collective Agreement between AAVA Whistler Hotel and Unifor Local 3000

 - 10) An agreed schedule for the process will be arranged in advance based on a mutual assessment of the length of time needed to present each case.
 - 11) General rules of evidence will be waived except for the rule of "onus".
 - 12) The offices of the Parties will be used for the process on an alternating basis.
 - 13) Procedure Guidelines
 - (i) The Opening Statement: This should basically set out the case from each party's perspective. The Arbitrator will aggressively seek, at this point, to define the issue and to determine what evidence is agreed to and what is not.
 - (ii) The Hearing: Sufficient witnesses should be called to ensure the "story" is properly told. Where it is an issue of credibility or conflicting evidence, the key individuals must testify.
 - (iii) The Argument: As agreed, the Parties will not cite legal precedents but may refer to Brown and Beatty, Palmer, etc. However, it is imperative that the relevant provisions of the Collective Agreement be canvassed by counsel to ensure that all relevant clauses are put before the Arbitrator.
 - (iv) Mediation: Counsel must accept some responsibility at this stage to assist the Arbitrator in assessing the evidence before the Arbitrator. Specifically, if counsel can assist in assessing credibility and/or contradictory evidence, they should do so.
 - (v) The Decision: If mediation fails, or is not appropriate, and if the decision can be rendered after a short deliberation, the Arbitrator will do so. By meeting first with counsel to explain the framework of the Arbitrator's decision, the Parties are provided with an opportunity to influence the exact terms of resolution. Within the framework of settlement as outlined by the Arbitrator, the Parties can work out exact terms which best suit the specifics of the case. Such an opportunity should not be wasted by continuing to argue the merits of the case.
- (b) The Mediator/Arbitrator will be selected from the list contained in Letter of Understanding #2.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

You are eligible to join the Plan provided you are a member of the Union and are in the employ of an eligible Employer and meet the eligibility requirements.

You are eligible to join the Plan provided you are a full-time employee and employed by an eligible Employer and meet the eligibility requirements.

The member and his/her dependents (dependent children under 19, or under 25 if in full-time attendance at an accredited educational institution, including mentally or physically handicapped children over 19 years of age who chiefly depend upon the employee for support and maintenance, and who reside with the member) become effective upon the accumulation of 240 hours paid into the Plan at the prescribed rate.

To be eligible for total coverage you must be actively at work at your Employer's place of business.

All coverage for new members except dental will commence on the 1st day of the month following the month in which sufficient hours are reported and paid to the Plan by your Employer.

In the case of a brand-new group, all members with sufficient hours for coverage receive Dental at the same time as all of their other benefits. However, Dental for new hires (members hired after the effective date of the Plan) will be effective the first of the month following nine months of continuous coverage.

ELIGIBLE DEPENDENTS

Dependents eligible for the EHB and Dental Plan include an insured member's spouse, common-law spouse (same sex or opposite sex), and children under 19 years of age, or under 25 if a full-time attendant at an accredited college or university. Mentally or physically handicapped children may be covered to any age provided they are resident in the home and are claimed as a dependent for Income Tax purposes.

"Common-law spouse" means a person with whom the member has cohabited for the past 12 months, or whom the member represents as his/her legally married spouse.

"Children" means the member's unmarried children, step-children or common-law children who reside with and are in the care and custody of the member.

No one will be considered eligible as a dependent if they are full-time members of the Armed Forces.

If a dependent other than a newborn infant, is in hospital when insurance should commence, insurance will not become effective until discharge from hospital.
